

Americas Best Value Inn Partners with Hotels4Truckers.com

(CLEVELAND, September 21, 2011) – Americas Best Value Inn® today announced a partnership with trucker-friendly website Hotels4Truckers.com, as site members can save up to 12 percent on room reservations at nearly 200 participating ABVI locations across the United States.

“This is an exciting opportunity, partnering with such an innovative concept that looks out for the best interests of truck drivers. Visitors to the site will gain access to hundreds of conveniently located, trucker-friendly Americas Best Value Inns throughout the country, and site members will enjoy the discounted rates being offered by our hotels,” said Vicki Schell, vice president of distribution for Vantage Hospitality Group, which is the parent company of Americas Best Value Inn, Canadas Best Value Inn® , Chinas Best Value Inn®, Value Inn Worldwide®, Lexington Hotels® and Lexington Inns®.

Hotels4Truckers.com is a new website developed and launched by a trucking industry veteran, aiming to help semi-truck drivers find great hotels that have the parking capacity to handle 75-foot long tractor trailers. The website provides both members and non-members useful information on trucker-friendly motels, hotels and other lodging across the United States, helping drivers avoid having to spend their nights in the sleeper berths of their rigs. For only $10 per year, members gain access to corporate hotel chain discounts and special trucker rates listed by individual hotels. In addition to semi-truck drivers, the site is useful to bus drivers and families traveling with an extra trailer or boat.

“Hotels4Truckers is very excited to partner with Americas Best Value Inn,” said Dan Fuller, President of Hotels4Truckers. “Americas Best Value Inn has stepped up to the plate and shown its support of America’s hard-working truck drivers. Americas Best Value Inn has said that it values trucker business, and we look forward to a long relationship in serving our nation’s truckers with great trucker-friendly hotels!”
